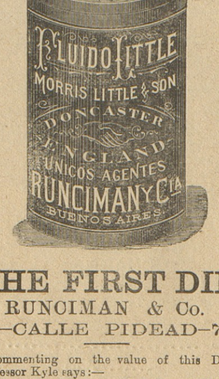
FLUIDO LITTLE



THE FIRST DIP

RUNCIMAN & Co.
73—CALLE PIDEAD—73

Commenting on the value of this Dip, Professor Kyle says:—
I have carefully examined the sample of Little's Sheep Dip you sent me on the 8th inst.
With the results of its analysis before me, I can now certify to the unusually high degree of concentration in which the active ingredients are offered to the public in this preparation manufactured by Morris and Little. These ingredients, which ordinarily do not dissolve in, or mix readily with even hot water, are in Little's Dip so associated with emulsifying principles as to become easily and perfectly mixible with cold water in any proportion that may be desirable.
The 'Dip' is entirely free from Arsenic or other mineral poison, and from caustic alkalies. The minute quantity of Soda which it contains is combined in the form of a soluble soap. No risk of accident to either man or the domestic animals need be apprehended, when diluted for use in accordance with the printed directions, notwithstanding its being effectually destructive to the lower forms of animal life, such as the insects and other parasites of the sheep. From a chemical point of view I can confidently recommend Little's Sheep Dip to the attention of sheepfarmers, and have little doubt as to its becoming a favourite remedy for scab, &c.
I am, Gentlemen,
Yours respectfully,
JOHN J. F. KYLE,
Prof. of Chemistry.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

Although there are many matters of local interest to occupy public just now attention, and the local mind will find ample matter for reflection in the two great events that occurred yesterday—the transfer of the Public schools, and of the Penitentiary to the Nat. authorities, still Buenos Ayres, with its many charms, is not all the world; and the fine steamer Valparaiso has brought such a budget of news from the Old World, that we question if our ordinary summary of 'latest news from Europe' meets the requirements of that very large body of subscribers who would much rather read all about the cession of Crete to the Emperor of Germany than the cession of the Penitentiary by Governor Romero. Due to the recent visit of the Princes, the B. Ayrean mind leans at the moment to Court news and fashionable intelligence; all the milliners of Europe are worked to death preparing for two Royal weddings. The Crown Prince of Austria marries the second daughter of the King of Belgium, and the future Emperor of Germany marries, in February, a Schleswic Holstein Princess. The news from Ireland is summarized elsewhere and is very important; the system of Boycotting has spread so through all Ireland that credit is affected and trade at a stand still; some extraordinary cases will be found in another column. Gen. Roberts is in Dublin, and like Mr Robert Crawford and Dr Leeson when they returned to their native land from the Plate, he has gone up for his L.L.D. diploma at old Trinity. The Provost made a long speech in the purest Latin, re-

London, Friday, Dec. 17.

All the Ministers were present yesterday at the Cabinet Council held at the Premier's official residence. The sitting lasted four hours and a half.

A Council was held by her Majesty yesterday afternoon at Windsor, after which Mr Walter Watson Hughes, of South Australia, Dr Edward Burrowes Sinclair, and Mr Edward Baines, late M.P. for Leeds, received the honour of knighthood.

Her Majesty and Princess Beatrice yesterday afternoon inspected the statue of the late Prince Consort, presented by Mr Gardner to the Windsor Albert Institution, which had been unveiled earlier in the day by Princess Christian.

Lord Ripon's condition, according to telegrams of yesterday's date from Allahabad, remained unchanged with the exception of a slight recurrence of the feverish symptoms:

It is stated at Constantinople that instructions will be given to the Ambassadors of the Powers to reply collectively to the Note of the Porte on the Greek question.

A convention for a loan of 120,000,000 drachmas between the representatives of the Hellenic and a syndicate of French and Greek bankers was signed in Paris on Wednesday.

Referring to Sir Charles Dilke's recent statement that England had unsuccessfully endeavoured to conclude a treaty of commerce with Spain, the Correspondencia remarks that the steps taken for the purpose of settling the basis of a treaty have not been in vain, and that negotiations are still pending.

At St. Louis a call has been issued for a national convention of coloured men to consider the best means of asserting and maintaining their constitutional rights.

According to the latest advices from the Administrator at Cape Town to the Secretary for the Colonies, nothing important was reported from Basutoland.

By a majority of sixty-seven votes, the Dominion House of Commons has sustained the refusal of the Pre-

The Kendal election has resulted in the return of the Liberal candidate, Mr Cropper, by a majority of 300, he having polled 953, against 653 polled by his Conservative opponent, Mr Harris.

Judgment was yesterday delivered on the recriminatory case, in regard to the Evesham election petition, the judges finding that, subject to a scrutiny, Mr Heartland is qualified for taking the seat.

Mr Phillip Callan, M.P., who was convicted at the last sessions of the Central Criminal Court of publishing a defamatory libel concerning Mr A M Sullivan, M.P., surrendered yesterday to receive judgment, and was sentenced to pay a fine of £50 to the Queen, and, in addition, the costs of the plea of justification. The fine was paid.

In the Chancery Division, yesterday, an injunction was moved for in the case of Cobbett v. Cox, to restrain the defendant from seizing goods at Packington Hall, the seat of the Earl of Aylesford, under a bill of sale. The motion was adjourned until Tuesday next, for the purpose of making Lord Aylesford a party to the action.

Public securities were in request yesterday, especially in the afternoon, when a favourable return was issued by the Bank of England, and £12,000 in gold was received there from Paris. English, Canadian and American lines, Foreign bonds, and the Funds, were all higher. The rise in Consols amounted to 3-16 per cent.

STATE OF IRELAND.

Dublin, Dec. 17th.

From Tullamore a correspondent telegraphed last night:—"A singular case of 'Boycotting' has taken place in the King's County. Mr. Dudgeon, landed proprietor, of Longford, who had a man named Nagle sentenced to twenty years' penal servitude for firing at him, is agent to the estate of Mrs. Bridd whose property is situated near Ballycumber, Last Wednesday night he proceeded to Clara with the view of collecting rents. His coming was anticipated, and when the train arrived 200 people had assembled on the platform. Mr. Dudgeon was received with general hooting, and it was with difficulty that the police succeeded in getting him into the stationmaster's office. No person in Clab would give him shelter, nor could he procure a car to proceed to Tullamore. The mob remained outside the station until after midnight, and matters at one time became so threatening that the four policemen on the platform had to load their guns. At two o'clock on Thursday morning Mr. Dudgeon, accompanied by two policemen, proceeded to walk the entire distance, seven miles, to Tullamore. On arrival there he sought admittance to Mrs. Brown's hotel, but, on hearing of what had occurred, that lady declined to run the risk of sheltering him. Mr. Dudgeon then proceeded to the house of Captain Lestrange, where he stayed until morning, and then left for Dublin, without, of course, having collected any rent. The police made no arrests." A telegram dated Wednesday night, in the Dublin Freeman, states:—"There is no change in the state of siege at Mr. Bence Jones's residence. The family is now effectually isolated from the outside world. To-day a dealer in bread, a tenant of Mr. Jones's, refused to supply necessaries to the house. The feeding of the cattle and the requirements of the dairy are attended to by Mr. Jones, jun., and Miss Jones, who are escorted about in their work by an armed policeman. Early in the morning the young gentleman may be seen in the turnip field pulling the turnips for the morning meal of the cattle, and Miss Jones guiding the horse and car." When Mr. Jones's cattle arrived at the North-wall, Dublin, as they were intended for transmission to Scotland, they were at once sent to the Glasgow shipping cattle yards. At the office of the company Mr. Brown, Mr. Jones's steward, who accompanied the cattle, was told that there was no room for them, as there were more than enough of cattle sent by their regular ship-

The last stage of the State prosecutions before actual trial took place to-day at noon. Mr. Goodman, Master of the Crown Office, sat to-day in the Four Courts, according to appointment, for the purpose of having the special jury panel of 48 struck on Monday reduced to 24. The Attorney-General was represented by Serjeant Heron, Q.C., and Mr. Constantine Molloy. Each side was at liberty to strike off twelve names, and at the suggestion of the Master those representing the prosecution and the defence alternately named the individuals whom they wished excluded from the Jury Lists. Mr. MacDonogh, Q.C., and Mr. Curran appeared for the defendants. At the end it was discovered that the twelve names expunged by the Crown were those of Roman Catholics. The defendants, on the other hand, struck off ten Protestants and two Roman Catholics. As the list now stands there remains nine Catholics amongst the twenty-four.

GREAT DOINGS IN NAVARRO.

RECEPTION OF THE NEW JUEZ DE PAZ.

About nine o'clock in the morning of last Sunday about twenty of the principal men of the town called on the new Justice of Peace, Mr Thos. Kenny, at the house of Mr Hearne. Half an hour afterwards they were joined by the Municipality and a large number of citizens and foreigners, when Mr Kenny was conducted, amid the cheers of the multitude, to the Juzgado, and from thence accompanied by the outgoing Juez, Sr Etchegaray, he proceeded to the church and assisted at the holy sacrifice of the Mass. Mr Kenny and Mr Etchegaray occupied special seats near the altar.

After Mass, Mr Kenny, standing before the altar, and in presence of the Cura, the Rev. Father Curran, Sr Etchegaray, and the entire congregation, took the usual oath and received from Sr Etchegaray the insignia of his new dignity.

The outgoing Judge was accompanied to his house by the entire population, as a mark of their respect and esteem.

Refreshments were served in the Juzgado, and several brilliant discourses were pronounced.

Among others who spoke were D Carlos M Casanova, Dr Castaño, D. Jose L Avalla, and Sr Bastarica.

The proceedings wound up with a grand 'carne con cuero' in the Plaza where about six hundred people assembled to partake of the bountiful feast prepared for them.

Mr Kenny's feast in Navarro was on a par with Mr Murphy's in Marcos Paz. It is worthy of notice that every man in Navarro, no matter to what political circle he belonged, joined in honouring Mr Kenny. We congratulate Mr Justice Kenny on the high esteem in which he is held by his fellow-citizens, and we hope his administration will be one of the most beneficent that Navarro has yet seen.

A grand ball will take place in the Juzgado next Sunday, to which several of our Hiberno-Porteña ladies are invited. It is expected to be a brilliant affair. Go ahead, Navarro.—Southern Cross.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The R.M.S. Minho sailed yesterday, true to time. She took a large cargo but few passengers.

Everybody is still on the 'espectativa' for news from Lima. The impression, so prevalent some days ago, that the Chilians have suffered a repulse, has changed to a belief that they have not yet attacked, as they find the Peruvian position far stronger than they supposed. Our talented colleague, Mr Stein of the Mosquito, has issued a war map on which the present position of the belligerents is admirably laid down. A glance at this shows how difficult is the work the invaders have before them. To a non-military eye the position looks almost as formidable as the famous Torres Vedras lines: but it must be remembered that there is a considerable difference in the quality of the men behind them

…only thing fresh that tran- … yesterday about the poison- … or malignant fever, case in Calle Independencia was that Professor Kyle had declined to make the analis of the contents of the victims' stomach as the Municipality is still in his debt for numerous previous jobs of the same kind. It is stated that all the cocks and hens in the same conventillo died from eating the remains of the fatal dinner. Another sighificant fact is that the conventillo is in a very filthy state. This is a curiously 'mixed' case, and the sooner the doctors pronounce finally on it the better. The fact that 'doctors differ and patients die, has passed into a proverb, but it is really most curious how Buenos Aires doctors invariably differ whether the patient be dead or alive. The Julietta malignant brandy fever case of 1878 is not yet forgotten.

Dr. Lopez, ex-President of the Provincial Bank, is now spoken of as likely to be elected President of the National Bank at he next meeting of shareholders. It would be a splendid move for the Bank.

There must be something wrong in the 'cuisine' of the city hospitals, as on Thursday a medical assistant in one of them pitched his dinner, knife and fork, plate and all, clean out of the window, saying it was unfit for human food. The opinion of a doctor, even 'in posse,' on such a subject is worth something, and the patients in the hospital in question have 'all kicked up their heels and now refuse to touch anything less toothsome than truffled turkey with oyster sauce and Yorkshire ham with 'pouding á la diplomats,' as a finish.

The Coliseum is being prepared for masquerade balls. There is too much, far too much, 'cau-cauing' going on just now.

The 'teatrito' at the Florida Gardens will be opened on Tuesday next. It is a 'bijou'

A colleague says that Col. Mansilla is going on an Immigration mission to Europe, to hunt up settlers for Patagonia in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Holland and Belgium.

There was a fight in the Chaco lately between a Lieutenant and 10 soldiers of the Line and 50 marauding Indians, two of whom were killed, severe captured, and the cattle they had carried off recovered.

The Capital of Rosario makes the highly unpleasant announcement that there is at least one case of typhoid fever in every 'manzana' of that city.

The total arrivals of emigrants during the month of December were 4009, of whom only 76 were English and 46 German. The Immigration Office found work for 1519 of them, mostly in the provinces.

The engineers charged with surveying the line for the railway from Salta to Jujuy have returned to the former city. They have chosen a route through Las Sauces, Abra del Naranjo, and Cienaga de Perico del Carmen !(what long names are in fashion up there !) Several tunnels will be required.

We are requested to draw attention to the change of time in the Lomas and Barracas church services, rendered necessary by the alteration in the Railway time-tables.

…PH FORSYTH.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 14, 1880.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,

I notice in yours of to-day a letter from Mr Somerville, Salto, reporting Robert Forsyth, for whom you were making enquiries, as dead.

When in Chubut I knew a Robert Forsyth, a past mate; he was then sailing master of the ballenera Idea, belonging to one of the colonists, Mr Ellis Jones, running between Chubut and Carmen de Patagones, Rio Negro.

From a letter I have just received from there he is still in the Colony. Whether he is the same man as you are enquiring about I cannot say; his name is the same as that mentioned.

Any further information in my power I will be glad to give you.

Truly yours,

F. Stearn.

The week has closed on a very firm gold market and from one cause or other the fall which all anticipated has not occurred; on the contrary, gold ruled stiff at the ring, and at 4 o'clock rose to 29.10 when it again fell away closing at 5 o'clock at 29, sellers. Gold opened at 28.95, sold at 28.9o, and closed at half past 1 o'clock at 28.95, cash sales reaching the large figure of 227,775, but then to-day was the middle of the month and the vencimientos reached 665,000. As ja rule the chief sellers to-day were Italians, and the buyers outsiders. At one time it was said that the bank was buying, but on undoubted authority we know such was not the case. Gold sold for March at 28.85. Cedulas rule firm at 87. Nat. Bank Shares very active, over 1000 sold 72⅞ cash, 73 end Feb. Bonos at their old quotation 99⅞.

There was rather a busy day on the Bolsa and in the market. The mails for the Minho closed at noon, and five steamers left port to-day—

The Belgrano

The Nat. Minister of Hacienda, Sr Cortinez remits to London by Minho for the March coupons £138,000 stg., and so well managed was the business that outside of the immediate circle of bankers few knew anything of the operation. We understand, the whole business was arranged with the Bank.

Messrs Carroll, Forrester and Mantels waited on the Minister of Hacienda to-day about the new Riachuelo decree prohibiting foreign vessels to discharge, or break bulk above the Government mole at the Boca, the question is one of the most serious importance for those who have bought properties on the Riachuelo, at Barracas, constructed moles, and galpones for this edict amounts to stretching a coup de main across the Riachuelo in front of Drysdale's mole for foreign vessels. The Minister says that smuggling has been going on and that a pipe of wine sells 2oo m/c cheaper in Barracas than in town, which injures the almaceneros of the city, who complained of the matter. The Minister expresses a wish to do everything possible to help commerce and protect the Customs and we hope some way out of the difficulty will be found on Monday. A meeting of the Centro Commercial will be held to consider the question, which is certainly most serious for this market.

The Rosse will sail on 21st, a full ship. The Havelius is expected at Montevideo to-night, and will sail from here on 25th direct for Antwerp.

The barque Ceres has entered from Santa Catalina with carga of farina, and Capt. wants to know his consignee.

The Vandyck cleared with the following cargo from Rosario—

2200 bales
1100 salted hides
1000 dry hides
200 packages metals

It was authoritatively stated on 'Change that the Senate will name Mr. Casares as President of the Bank, and Messrs E Casey, Ocampo and Unzue as new Directors, nominations which give marked satisfaction, Mr Casey's name especially. All parties were well pleased to learn that he would resume his seat on the Bank, a position which all last year he filled with such credit to himself and satisfaction to the market.

Mr Huss has made another great cattle sale, 6000 novillos, Cordova, deliverable saladero here at 370 m/c; also 3250 head, al corte Rio Cuarto, deliverable here at 10 Bol. 2 rls. These are very important sales.

The following cattle sales in Bragado are also reported: 1,000 head, al corte, 280 m/c. 500 fat novillos 460, all from an English estancia.

The sales at the ring were—

Some very intelligent brokers attributed the rise in the gold market to the news from Europe about the Panama canal which will now be carried out, and the effect of the turning of the gulf stream. Gold dropped during the heated argument over the map of the world.

Mr E Garcao was welcomed on 'Change from the Uruguay, he reports the Pastoral estancias in splendid state, 85,000 head of horned cattle, the wool sold at 36 rls. The Sacra saladero will not work but is offered for sale, also a square league of land adjoining. The price paid for saladero novillos is much higher than here, 18 and 19 pats gold. The Sta Maria saladero is killing, also Libario's, and the Liebig has killed to date 6000 head, and the locusts are terrible in the Banda Oriental, 3 classes, and eating up everything. Mr Garcao leaves to-night for Montevideo.

Exchange was done at 49¾d and 4,27-28 Reichsmark; francs some bills passed at 5.28 to 5.29. It was rumoured the Bank begins to draw at 43d, and this for a moment effected the market, but afterwards proved incorrect.

The payments for produce were ahead of last week, all the tables crowded and millions paid away. Some barraqueros are very busy, we note in the bales shipping Mr Brunkhorst's number is 4,500.

Messrs Tomkinson Bungey & Co. have taken the whole freight market to themselves, they report the following charters and have effected 4 others that they decline to report—

Italian barque Lurgia to load at Rosario crushed bones for orders at 18s.

Ital. brig Maunicca Galatola to load in port for Barcelona at 10,000 francs.

Ital. barque Nuovo San Pascuali to load tallow in Tuyu for orders at 26s.

Ital. barque Bianchi Ginocho to load in port bones for orders at 19s in full.

Brit. brig Amorctti to load in port cereals for the Cape at reserved rates.

Mr Herm. Altgelt's unimitable wheat circular was given round to-day; it affords the most exhaustive tables for the year, which merit special notice in our next. Wheat arrivals are beginning to be larger, yet prices advanced $8 to 10; one good lot Sta. Fe, $150.

Messrs Mackiernan & Shaw's excellent live stock review is also at hand; one of the best papers published; we recommend it to estancieros.

The Nat. Government took over to-day the Penitentiary at its full cost, fifty millions, and the Public schools on a basis of 10 p. cent Contribution Directa.

Dr. Avellaneda, ex-President, has opened his office as lawyer; we have no doubt so distinguished an advocate will find numerous clients.

To-morrow a grand complimentary banquet will be given in Lujan to M. E. Casey; no man better deserves this high tribute of respect, he obtained for Lujan the new branch of the Prov. Bank.

We are happy to say that there is no truth in the rumoured departure for Europe of Chevalier Pollinini, at least for the present.

We have to thank the Captain of the Corinthian for late papers, Havre 16th,

The Belgrano took—
1700 bales
1600 dry hides
1500 bales in Montevideo
1400 salt hides.

It is rumoured on Change that the Nat. Government wishes to send Dean Monsignor Dillon and Mr John Dillon on a special mission to England, to arrange for large Irish colonies on the Rio Negro.

Mr Diaz Arenas, who has arrived from Cordoba reports the Eastern Argentine Railway traffic increasing and the line open to Celbo. Mr Smart, the talented and economical manager of the line, assured Mr Arenas that the Company felt much indebted to the Argentine Government for the great assistance and protection it affords the line in every possible Custom House way, favors that are of more value to the Company than even the 7 per cent guarantee. We are somewhat indebted to Mr Arenas for this information as it removes previous impressions.

Mr Benitez, of Gran Chaco, was welcomed. He reports the timber trade at Malabrigo a losing business.

The greatest of all the news on 'Change was the sale of Mr Lezama's two splendid estancias, perhaps the most important sales in that line effected for years.—Santa Rita estancia, on the Arroyo Grande, 14 square leagues of prime land, with poblaciones, but without stock, for twelve millions currency; and the Blandengues estancia, all fenced and wired, with fine estancia house, puestos, galpones, corrales &c., and three square leagues of prime land, for the round sum of six millions currency. The buyer of the Santa Rita estancia is the tenant on the land, Sr Otero, and the buyer of the other Mr Lavarello.

Our Boca correspondent gives the following—

The Boca Port is in a really too awful muddle, not only as regards 'permisos' for the discharging of the cargo of foreign vessels but also as regards the new laws which come into vogue every day, without previous anticipation to the public.

Yesterday quite a number of dug-outs and miserable little dinghies were towed off to the Captain of the Port's, under the plea that 'patentes' and other papers were requisite for keeping the poor little things afloat.

The canoes, let it be known, are generally made by some poor hardworking carpenter or caulker, who often when his vocation calls him, has necessity to cross to the opposite side to work on board some lighter and I think it is very hard on them, that without a moment's notice, their poor little craft, worth say $250 is marched off, and made to pay, including fine, close on $500. Things are beginning well for our Boca port, which is expected to give such great results.

If vessels coming from Northern ports are going to have as much trouble as they have previously had, I am afraid the entries will be few and far between.

The following advices from Rio we received by mail this morning:—

"Exchange—Our market closed firm for last steamer at 22d for Bank and 22½ to ⅝ for Commercial bills, and opened on 16th at 22½ for Bank and 22⅝ to ¾ for Commercial paper; on the 17th rates were advanced to 22⅝ and ¾ Bank bills, and 22¾ to 23d Commercial bills; on 18th Banks again advanced rates to 22⅞ and 22⅞, and a large amount of private paper was passed at 23d and 22 15/16; on 20th rates were a trifle weaker and, although Banks drew at 22⅞ and ¾, little paper was obtainable over 22⅞; on 21st the Banks drawing at 23⅛ reduced rate to 22⅝; and on 22nd all Banks opened at 22⅞, Commercial paper being passed at 22⅞, 22 11/16 and ⅝.

"On Paris business has been done at 418 to 422 reis per franc for Bank and 412 to 418 reis for other paper.

"Our market closes firm, with little money for Banks at 22⅞, and bills offering at 22⅝.

"Discounts—Remain unaltered and transactions as well as requirements have been remarkably small during the past fortnight.

"We quote—
8½ to 4 /o per ann. for short dates.
4 to 6 o/o " 3 to 4 months.
7 to 8 o/o " 4 to 8 months.

"Just after our last report the outbreak of failures amongst the coffee dealers of N. York was cabled to us and an advance in the Bank of England rate to 3 o/o. This news led to large sales of coffee at more moderate prices, and all accounts agree that the speculation for a rise in values has of late years been excessive, rendering the position so delicate that the slight accident of increased receipts here caused a great overturn, both in Europe and America, as regards Brazilian coffee business, the end of which will doubtless be beneficial to legitimate traders.

"Beyond the sale of some 8,000 Gold Bonds of 1879, for 90-d/st Sterling Bills on London, made by the Bank of Brazil a few days ago there was little done."

The Valparaiso's mails bring the following advices from London:—

"No alteration was made to-day in the Bank rate of discount, the weekly return showing greater strength than had been anticipated, and the gold efflux having for the moment stopped. The current, indeed, took the opposite direction, as a small sum was sent in to the Bank; while, more significant still, an arrival of about £70,000 from Australia did not find buyers. It is not at all impossible that the demand for New York may, after this week at least, cease altogether, since any purchases of bullion here might arrive on the other side at the time when the Government payments for interest and drawn bonds on the last day of the present, and the first of next, year will realise a large amount of the specie accumulated in the Treasury. An operation in bullion might under such circumstances result in loss, although at the current rate of exchange it may seem to promise a profit. The Bank return is favourable. The demand for money was strong all day in connection with Stock Exchange settlement, and advances were obtained at the Bank of England repayable after the distribution of the dividends on the 6th of next month. In the open market there was an active inquiry for short loans, and at one time as much as 4 per cent was paid, but in the afternoon money was comparatively plentiful, and was offered at 2½ per cent. For best three months' paper the terms were 3 per cent, but there was not much business, the figures of the Bank return leading some holders to keep back bills in anticipation of easier rates. To-morrow money will no doubt be again wanted on the Stock Exchange, the settlement having by no means been completed to-day, owing to the difficulty in delivering stock.

"Consols recovered ¼. Foreign Government Bonds were nearly all better, but the firmest were again Egyptian, particularly Unified, which almost touched 70. An enormous amount was stated to have been taken off the market, one broker alone absorbing about two millions stock for a powerful foreign syndicate.

"About £12,000 in French gold coin (Napoleons) was sent into the Bank.

"The Elbe, from Buenos Aires, has brought £75,613 in specie, and the Nepaul, from Calcutta, £63,172. The Pekin sailed from Galle this morning for Southampton with £90,000, and the Liguria has left Melbourne for London with £50,000, making the total amount of Australian gold on the way hither about £630,000

"In the absence of any inquiry for the Continent, bar silver declined ⅛d, to 51⅛d per ounce. The depression was also assisted by the announcement of the arrival of about £65,000 from South America by the str. Elbe. There was no inquiry for the East, and it is a remarkable fact that the last six steamers from Southampton for that quarter have taken no remittances in this metal.

"A Dublin correspondent writes:—"Trade here is in an unprecedented condition. Wholesale houses take orders with the greatest reserve, few being accepted except for cash terms. Representatives of English and Scotch firms have practically stopped credit, as the chances of recovering debts by process of law against a Land League trader are 'nil'. Commercial men calling on their customers in the 'League' are assured that no money can be obtained till 'we see what Parliament will do', as 'the farmers are holding the money as well as the land'. It is estimated that upwards of £400,000 due to English, Scotch, and Dublin manufacturers are uncollectable, from the causes above stated. Trade is in a deplorable state; there is neither confidence nor credit. In the agricultural districts in the West, North-West, and portions of the South farm labourers are only partially employed, as little progress is being made in preparing for spring sowing, and it is feared that these labourers will make life and property even more insecure than at present. The wide spread demoralisation which has set in will not be removed by any land bill that may be brought in by Government, and the Boycotters will find that they have set an example which the 'residuum' will not be slow to profit by, nor soon forget"."

PRESIDENT GARFIELD.

General James Abraham Garfield, who in March next will be formally inaugurated the twentieth President of the United States, was born in Orange village, Cuyahoga county, Ohio, about twelve miles from Cleveland, on November 19, 1831. He is therefore 49 years of age. His life has been eventful throughout; but while for the first 25 years of his career young Garfield had to struggle against poverty and meagre education and a long train of adverse circumstances, it was a struggle in which the young man won, and his life since then has been made up of what may be described as a continued series of rapid promotions. Since his twenty-fifth year he has been preacher, professor, lawyer, soldier and statesman, showing great power in each capacity and winning a fair share of distinction in all. From his boyhood up to the time when he entered upon his majority he had to do what he could to fight his own way in the world and to help others who were dependent on him. He was well into his teens before he could write his name, but by that time he could read well, and he read greedily. His aim throughout the hard battle he made for his existence in his young days was to make up as bravely as he could, trusting to no man's patronage, and relying on his own ability to labour, for the deficiencies of culture that were the more surely to be overcome because he saw and felt them. His parents, we are told, were both of New England extraction. His father, Abraham Garfield, was born in Ostego county, N. Y., but his family had lived in Massachusetts for generations. His mother's maiden name was Eliza Ballou, and she was the niece of the Rev. Hosea Ballou, a noted Universalist clergyman of New Hampshire, in which State she was born. James was the youngest of four sons, and his father died in 1833, when the future General was scarcely two years old, leaving his children dependent solely on their mother. Mrs Garfield was a woman of remarkable business qualities, and it is from her that James inherited his persevering nature. With the aid of three older boys she managed to support herself and the family on the little farm left by her husband, and James, from his earliest years, was obliged to aid to the extent of his ability in the general work about his home. But he liked work, and it was said of him when a boy that there was 'not a lazy hair on his head.' He was a poor boy, and saw no means of making a living but by manual labour, and he applied himself to learn the trade of a carpenter. During the summer months he toiled early and late on his mother's farm, and the winter days he passed at his carpenter's bench, doing such little jobs of simple workmanship as the neighbours required. There was a village school, so called, in Orange, where the citizens met on winter evenings to read and discuss the books which they possessed, and this young Garfield attended, picking up such information as he could in the capacity of a listener. It was there his desire for mental improvement became strong upon him. But he could do little without the aid of money, and there was little to earn in the neighbourhood. If the work itself was honest and useful, young Garfield did not care how hard it might be, and reasoning thus, he in his 17th year became a towpath-hand on the Ohio Canal. He continued in this business, saving what little of the earning he could, for about eighteen months, until the fall of 1848, when he determined to advance a step and ship as a sailor on the lakes. At this time, however, an attack of fever and ague prevented his executing his plans, and drove him back to his mother's house an invalid. The turning point in his life had been reached. He remained prostrated in his mother's house for three months, and during that time made the acquaintance of Samuel D Bates, who was teaching the district school that winter. Bates had been attending the 'Geauga Seminary' in an adjoining county, and his conversation so fired the ambition of young Garfield, which had almost died away under the influence of his canal-boat associates, that he determined to forsake his idea of becoming a sailor, and make an attempt to secure an education. In March, 1849, he literally went out in the pursuit of knowledge. He was accompanied by a cousin and another young man from his village, and the three of them took with them frying-pans and dishes, as they were too poor to pay for board as well as education. They rented a room in an old unpainted frame building, near an academy at Chester, Ohio, and began to work. Garfield studied hard and progressed rapidly. His heart was in his work, and he distanced many competitors who had enjoyed far better advantages than himself. He worked mornings, evenings, and Saturdays in the carpenters' shops of the town, and thus managed to earn his living while prosecuting his studies. When the summer vacation came he worked steadily, and thus created a fund to pay for his tuition for the next term. At the end of this he had gained sufficient knowledge to warrant him in teaching a district school, and thus, by teaching in summer and working hard evenings, he not only managed to pay the expenses of his own education at the academy, but to lay by a fund to pay for a collegiate course, upon which he was new determined to enter, In 1851 he left the academy and went to Hiram Eclectic Institute, where he continued to prosecute his studies. In three years he had learned enough to give him the assurance that he could pass an examination for admission into one of the higher colleges. He went to Williams College in Williamstown, in Massachusetts, and in the fall of 1854 he was admitted to the junior class of that institution. Thrust into the society of polished young students, who looked somewhat contemptuously on the rough Western farmer and carpenter, his experience in a social point of view was far from pleasant. He had come to Williams, however, for a purpose, and that purpose he kept steadily in view. Heedless of the slights which he constantly received, he applied himself energetically to his studies, and in 1856, two years after his admission, he was graduated, bearing off the metaphisical honour of his class, which is esteemed at Williams as among the highest within the gift of the institution to the graduating members. This was ample recompense for all the slights which he had endured while struggling for the high prize. Garfield was now 25 years of age, and had, as the result of his 20 years' labour, a collegiate education, his clothes, his books, his diploma, and a debt of 450 dols. From Williams he went back to the Eclectic Institute at Hiram, this being the college of a denominational body known as Campbellites, with whose tenets Garfield was in sympathy. He was welcomed on his return, and was made professor of Latin and Greek. A year afterwards he was made president of the institution, and this capacity he not only taught and lectured, but preached. In the same year in which he became a professor at Hiram Mr Garfield was married to Miss Lucretia Rudolph, the daughter of a farmer living near the institute.

LATEST FROM BRAZIL.

Among the projected railways is one authorized by a recent law of S. Paulo, It is for a line from the port of Cananea to the frontier of the province or Parana, passing up the valley of the Ribeira do Iguape, to reach the highland of Parana. The project includes the purchase, at minimum rate, of public lands in the neighborhood of the line and of retailing them for colonization, as is intended to be done with those which the Caravellas and Philadelphia railway concessionaries have obtained authorization to acquire. Great masses of public lands exist along the course of the projected railway, and although those in the neighborhood of the port are of poor quality, excellent lands abound about twenty miles farther on. The rich iron mine of Jacupiranguinha lies also upon the course of the line, at about 24 miles from the port, and near fine marble deposits. Timber and water power are likewise in abundance, and the port is safe, deep and accessible. The enterprise has solid bases for future prosperity but at present there is very little population, the colony of Cananea having been a failure, partly on account of the poverty of its land and partly because of the stopping place of the packets being at the port of the island of Cananea and not at the colony port on the mainland.

The Senate concluded last week the second reading of the Electoral Reform Bill and commenced the third reading on the 20th. Some attempts to shelve the bill, by recommitting it or laying it over to the ordinary session of next year, were negatived, and it seems probable that the amended bill will pass the Senate by the end of the week without important changes, although it has been rumoured that a strong effort would be made to reintroduce the rejected amendment declaring non-catholics, naturalized foreigners and freedmen ineligible to the legislatures. Baron de Cotegipe, however, through believing their eligibility a Constitutional matter, has declared that he will not vote against the bill because of it.

The Deputies met on the 22nd and voted the credit of $5,000:000 for the navy, together with the Senate addition of $4,000:000 for the army.

The weather has continued to be excessively hot, even for the summer, and despite frequent rains, but yellow fever does not as yet manifest itself threateningly.

The inauguration of work on the D. Thereza Christina Railway, in Santa Catharina, at the port of Imbituba, took place on the 18th. Besides opening up fine agricultural districts, this line will permit the utilization of the valuable coal beds at the Tubarao, which lie about 70 miles from the above port.

Telegraphic accounts report electoral disturbances in both Ceará and Sergipe. In the former, during an election of a double senatorial list, to fill the two vacancies in the senatorial representation of the province, a fight occurred, December 6th, at Baturité, between conservatives and liberals, when several persons were wounded, one mortally. At Fortaleza a struggle for possession of the polling church took place between the two sections of the liberals, and 36 persons are reported wounded.

In Sergi
Santa Lu
the headqu
17 were hurt.

The decree has been ing an increase of guaranteed to the Rio Grande do Sul and Bagé Railway, and we understand that the Paris company which has acquired the concession expects to be able to inaugurate the construction in March.

The Government contemplates taking advantage of the more favourable foreign feeling towards Brazilian railway enterprises to attempt the promotion of railway extensions and new lines. and also to push on the Rio Grande do Sul Railway, for which latter purpose the President of the Council has asked the Senate to increase to $4,290,000 the credit of 1,290,000 voted by the Chamber of Deputies for the Porto Alegre and Uruguayan Railway, to make the section from Boca de Monte to Cacique at once. The Minister of Agriculture has likewise written to S. Paulo to offer kilometric subsidy and grants of alternate sections of public lands to induce the construction of the Araquara to Santa Anna do Parnahyba section to the Matto Grosso Railway.

As regards strategic telegraph lines, those in Rio Grande do Sul are being pushed on rapidly by the military engineer corps, and the President of the council has asked a credit of $200,000 for the construction of a line in the province of Parana to the Argentine and Paraguayan frontiers.

The President of the province of Rio de Janeyro has sanctioned the provincial law of Estimates for 1881; including the tax of $1,500 each on slaves brought into the province from other provinces, and other taxes intended to localize the existing slaves in it and discourage slave dealing.

As relates to the abolitionist propaganda, Sr Joaquin Nabuco left for Paris on the 15th, on, it is current, a commission which will keep him away some months.

Heavy rains have done much damage in the highlands of the province of Rio de Janeyro, breaking the Cantagallo Railway in several places and innundating the city of Cantagallo in part.
